TESTIMONIALS.
From Mr. JOHN J. MAHON, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gilliard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.
From Mr. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.
From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, Sept. 20, 1881—
"I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip supplied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip has had surprising results on my English long-woolled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give it a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them shorn, as I feel satisfied I shall with that did keep scab out of the flock."
From Messrs. Patrick Mahon, junr., Ciriaco Morales, and James Murray, Capilla del Señor, Sept. 18, 1881—
"It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fully determined for the future to use no other remedy."

Dr. Schencks Mandrake Pills!

Professor John King of the College of medicine, in Cincinnati, says: In constipation, Mandrake acts upon the bowels without disposing them to subsequent costiveness. In chronic Liver complaint there is not its equal in the whole range of medicines, being vastly more useful than mercurial agents, arousing the liver to healthy action, increasing the flow of bile, and keeping up these actions longer than any other agent with which we are acquainted. The following epitome of the latest news by telegraph, from all quarters, is taken from our colleagues—

Rio 3rd.

Rosario 3rd.

Shaft of Proveedor broke on the run up. Passengers came on in another steamer, the 'Litoral', from San Nicolas.

Esquina 3rd.

Violent revolution, headed by Derqui, has broken out in the city of Corrientes.

Montevideo 4.

Government going to withdraw the Budget and send in another, based on a comprehensive scheme of financial reform.

Cordoba 1st.

Gross receipts of Tucuman Railway in January 46,458 pats, and in February 47,366, although these months are generally the worst.

Rio Cuarto 3rd

Rio Quinto railway bridge was tested yesterday with most satisfactory results. While a heavy train passed at full speed the girders only showed 27 milimetres deflection.

Nothing decided yet about War portfolio.

Terrible 'esclandre' in Rio Senate. Martinho Campo, President of Council, insulted Baron Cotegipe, President of Senate. Tremendous rumpus, and sitting suspended amidst terrific uproar. In the Deputies Filho interpellated the Government about the Paso Hondo affair. Imperial Government has ordered the troops in Rio Grande to be ready to march at a moment's notice, and also that troops be concentrated at several points on the frontier.

Said that Dantas, new Brazilian Envoy, will exact as a 'sine qua non' before treating, the arrest of Joaquin Santos and other officers.

Vilaza declares he will not leave the country but stand his trial.

British Minister will give a ban quet to Corps Diplomatique.

General rumour current that the whole affair is as good as settled.

ARMY CONTRACTORS.

It was during the great Peninsular War that an army contractor complained to General Wellington that one of his generals had threatened to hang him, if his division was not supplied with prompt regularity with wholesome food. 'What', said Lord Wellington, (that was to be), 'did General.....say that to you?' 'Yes Sir, he actually threatened to hang me'. 'Well', said the great chief, 'you had better look sharp, for, pon my soul, General .....is just the man to keep his word.'

We have come to the conclusion that a little hanging of contractors in this country would have a salutary effect on our Army and Navy. In a great war it is almost impossible to prevent frauds. In the U. States, in the war of Secession, the new word 'shoddy' was coined. The word took the place of another that had a similar meaning, bogus. It means in its present sense a counterfiet article. The American soldier was often the victim of the shoddy contractors, not a few of whom, however, were severely handled when the soldiers got a chance at them. All our wars in this country enriched the Army contractors, mostly at the expense of the poor soldier. There never has been a time that complaints have not been made of the shortcomings of 'Proveedores'. These gentlemen always know on which side their bread is buttered. Any one who visits a military post will remark that the officers are particularly well treated by the contractors; they have the best of everything. Nothing is too good for them. How then can they have the conscience to find fault if stinking, lean meat and mouldy biscuits and shoddy shoes are served out to the men? That there are some officers in the Argentine Army that treat their soldiers as men, and care for their comfort, we are proud to admit; but as a general rule the comfort and well-being of the Argentine soldier or sailor are miserably neglected.

We have now the late scandal of the putrid provisions served to the fleet. Who are the parties immediately or remotely to blame? The latter are probably beyond the range of chastisement, but their instruments ought to be nabbed. The Prensa, the most impartial paper of the native Press, has some very severe strictures that would annihilate a Minister of War in any other country, but which appear to have little effect in this. The Prensa says:—"The disorder and immoralities which the country laments proceed from two fundamental causes, defect of organization and want of nerve and moral courage in the Minister to perform his duty." If a man through weakness of character, and knowing his duty, allows his personal feelings, affections or interests to deviate him from that duty, he is not only a bad public functionary but a dangerous one.

In a certain warm place where Bieckert's iced beer is not to be had for love or money, they say the boulevards are paved with good intentions. Our present Minister of War has made public on various occasions promising programmes that inspired confidence, and led the public to hope that a thorough reorganization of the Army, and particularly the Navy, would follow the promises. But the history of the present Secretaryship of the Army and Navy, not only is not marked by any improvement, but the papers are continually recording scandals proceeding from want of energy or capacity in the War Office. One day it is the Indians at their old work; another it is insubordination of troops, sailors, officers and employees. Now it is an effort to poison the crew of our vessels with rotten meat. Tomorrow we may have mutinees and the assassination of officers, and the blowing up of some of our iron-clads. We may expect anything, if the War Minister does not give prompt effect to his recognised good intentions.

THE EXHIBITION.

CAPITAL SECTION.

In the liqueur department nobody can help seeing Bagley's biscuits and Hesperidina. A young woman hands both to the public to taste: the exhibition of wines might have adopted the same policy: but only one has done so, Mr Francis Cordero, the owner of the Rioja port, the very best proof of its good quality and flavor. Bagley, his biscuits and his Hesperidina are so well-known to the public that there is no necessity for dwelling on same. La Union also exhibits some fine biscuits, quite up to the mark, and nearly as good as Palmer and Huntley's of England.

Just in front of Bagley's stall Messrs Roverano Hnos. have their splendid exhibits of cakes, jams and sweets; this firm has won medals in all the late Exhibitions of the world, and may be considered the first house of the kind in America.

The confiteria Union and M. Noel have similar stalls, with a beautiful arrangement of flower-sweets. Near by, M. Daumas' stall always attracts a great crowd, two women are working a machine, driven by steam; the manipulation of the tobacco and cigarrette-making is most interesting. The machinery seems simple enough, but we think that cigarettes are made as quickly by hand. The stall is covered with large jars of different tobacco from Cordoba, Corrientes, Tucuman, Paraguay, etc. M. Daumas has earned his widespread reputation through the perfection to which he has carried the tobacco industry. He may be considered the pioneer of same in the Argentine Republic, and one of the powerful promoters and members of the Club Industrial. M. Daumas' name is invariably linked to industry in the Plate.

Our friend and subscriber M. Mendez de los Andes, has a splendid show of cigarettes and tobacco. His cigarettes may be considered the best in town: the tobacco is very good, and the special care in packing and arranging same draws attention. His shop, known as the Abundancia, near the Confiteria del Gas, is one of the finest cigar-establishments of the city. The enterprize of M. Mendez is also well-known. Close by one sees exhibits from the Proveedora, Aguila and other firms. There is no city in the world to beat Buenos Aires in ci garettes: the paper-cigar is a Portenho characteristic entirely, and the consumption of same as well as of matches is something stupendous. The cigarette flourishes in this country instead of the pipe.

The capital section continues at the end of the Argentine section in the Calle Rivadavia. There we see a splendid show of saddlery of all descriptions, from several well-known establishments of the city. The most interesting exhibit of all in this department is the vegetable oil from La Industrial in the Calle Rivadavia, near the Lacroze station. The oil is beautiful, perfectly limpid and pure. There are several manufactories of this oil in the city, but we know of none to beat the Industrial in preparation of the oil and the arrangement of its exhibits.

Alongside you see samples of Argentine corned-beef, of preserves of all descriptions etc.

VOLPI, STILL VOLPI!

The 'entourage' of President Santos are making prodigious efforts and doing their utmost to frustrate his fixed intention to punish the guilty in this sad affair. Barreto, the Chief of Police, is said to be the least guilty of the bad lot. It is expected that Vilaza and another high official will be at once arrested. Caravajal, the murderer of young Betancourt, is again being dragged into the imbroglio, and perhaps they will torture him too, to make him recant his declarations of Volpi and Patroni's innocence of the crime.

Baron Cova is determined to have justice done. He went on board the Carracciolo on Monday and interrogated the victims at great length, telegraphing everything to Rome when he landed. Patroni is wretchedly weak; the only thing he takes is a little wine, no solid food, and it is feared he will die. On landing from the Carracciolo Baron Cova had a long interview with Dr Herrera y Obes. There is a persistent rumour that this Minister will follow the example of Vilaza and resign in a few days. There are numerous candidates for his post, amongst them Drs. G Mendez, C. de Castro and F. Bauza.

The Italia published a telegram from Rome stating that Baron Cova's instructions are to settle the matter amicably.

The Ministers of Spain and the Argentine Republic held a long conference on Monday, Judge Castillo was engaged all day in cross-examining all the Police employees in reference to the torture of Volpi and Patroni.

The new Brazilian Minister, Privy Councillor Souza Dantas, is expected in the Britannia.

The Chambers passed a motion calling on the Judges to say what action they had taken, or intended to take with their learned brother, Dr Zorilla San Martin, for having signed the protest of the Press, in which it is declared that 'the institutions of the country are now a hollow farce'. One honourable member proposed that the motion should be extended to several military officers who had publicly expressed the same opinion as Chief Baron San Martin.

The Argentines in Montevideo do not seem satisfied with the part their Minister, Mr Moreno, has played in the Volpi affair, and have commnnicated with the National Government, forgetting, doubtless that the Minister only followed his instructions.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

LONDON PRESS—BRADLAUGH—JUMBO.

March 3, 1882.

It is well to live in London, where the news of the world is not only centred but sifted almost simultaneously. At the end of this week we are much as we were at the beginning, and yet all kinds of sensational intelligence has been published in the interval. It is, perhaps, different in distant countries where telegrams arrive less frequently and in a more condensed shape. I could imagine the week's news compressed into a parenthetical, explanatory, or interlinear despatch, and forwarded to the B. Aires Standard in this manner—'War between Russia and Austria'—not stated where. 'Threatened march of German troops into France in 48 hours'—the possible conditions of such a catastrophe are mentioned in the Paris letter of the Morning Post. 'Demand of Prince Bismarck for the suppression of Punch'—in Berlin, and the copy only containing the cartoon of the Royal Rescript, represented by a hot poker offered by clown to pantaloon—'Resignation of Mr. Gladstone and dissolution of Parliament—a fabrication of the Daily Telegraph. 'Threatened conflict between the Lords and Commons'—still threatening and by this time 'fiambre.' 'Frightful and secret murders of well-dressed people by 'roughs' on the Thames Embankment, bodies thrown into the river and 'turning up' daily—bodies of well-dressed suicides, probably victims of a 6 per cent. bank rate. Her Majesty Queen Victoria shot by Robert or Roderick Maclean'—shot at.

Here, however, is a telegram from Brxsse, to which I dare not add any explanation, and possibly you in Buenos Aires will be able to calculate its value better than we:—

"It is now six weeks since the body of M. Bernays, the Antwerp barrister, was found in an uninhabited house at Brnssels. Since then the investigations of justice have been fruitless. Nevertheless, daily rumours from various quarters, but not well-founded, were spread, some of a very delicate nature, affecting persons closely connected with the victim. To-day some light seems to be thrown on the mysterious affair. A warrant of apprehension has been issued against a certain Leon Peltzer, a Belgian merchant of German origin, but long settled at Buenos Aires. He appears to have been at Brussels in December last. From an inspection of the writing of the so-called Vaughan, and a photograph found in Peltzer's family, and for reasons still more serious, the police think they are on the track. More cannot be said for the present."

Yesterday the people of Northamptonshire again elected Mr. Bradlaugh to represent them in Parliament by a majority of 108 in a very large poll; the majority, however, is less than on previous occasions, but the return too clearly evinces the determination of the constituency, seeing that great numbers of Liberals, and particularly those of the evangelical and dissenting persuasions, would rather vote for a Tory than a professed Atheist. The general expectation was that Mr. Corbett the Tory candidate would be returned. The contrary result shows that much as you get out of an Englishman by an appeal to the Gospel and his religious instincts, he will at no price be bullied. The House of Commons ought to receive the lesson. I assure you that I live more amongst high Tories than with Radicals or Liberals, and believe me that the rant you see in Conservative papers or hear in Parliament does not represent the opinions of well-educated gentlemen, who have a horror of infidelity in any shape, and participate in the general dislike of Mr. Bradlaugh's vulgar self assertion, but who deplore the inconsistency and impolicy of the House of Commons endeavouring to form a sliding scale of religions beliefs and drawing the line at some particular point, and, above all, of making a political stalking-horse of religion and of confounding principles with personal dislikes. The Irish vote on these subjects, were it sincere, would be of little value, and the Jew votes of men like Sergeant Simon and others, who owe their social recognition to the tolerant principles of the Liberal party, are still more repulsive, and amongst my own friends I have heard Jews say so. The daily press of our times is really no criterion of educated or even of general opinion. It is simply a business, and, with some brilliant exceptions, in the hands of a low class of shorthand writers, advertisement touts, printers, speculators and practical men, assisted by free lances from the bar, not only briefless but soulless. The contributors to the Times are of course first-class men, and the paper is a receptacle for the best information and correspondence from all parts of the world, but it is weighed down to a low intellectual level by the commonplaceness of the management. The Telegraph speaks for itself. We all read its articles that are not intended to be serious or political with pleasure, and from a mere literary point of view they are often interesting and clever, but when it allows its soul to be exposed, we see it is low in the synagogue and that the rest is second-rate Cockney slum, and even theatrical orange-peel slum of the past. Clement Scott, Edwin Arnold, G. A. Sala, &c.—'que quiere?' the London of the pre-electric, the gas and caroniferous, the lobster-shop and small tavern period. The city article of the Telegraph is good and respected.

The Standard is well written and well managed, but never rises beyond the mediocrity of common sense. The articles in the Post, since it took its place in the streets with the rest of the penny press, have been vigorous, and now that it begins to see that neither Lord Palmerston, nor Lord Beaconsfield, nor the Duke of Sutherland, nor any Lord, not even Lord Salisbury, was or is infallible, and that if any one is infallible it is Sir Algernon Borthwick himself, the paper has taken a more practical tone, or at least is less silly in its dogmas and less absurd in its fancy costume of a nobleman of the Elizabethan period. The Globe's social leaders are amusing and its political articles never offend by their stupidity—their mendaciousness is always rational—but the pink dress and the whole style remind one of a female politician of good manners, who wishes to wound but scorns to scratch. The Daily News is a trifle priggish in its desire to be above its 'Radical tail,' but it is out and out the best political paper in London, and no one can be said to have read the morning papers who has not read the Daily News. The little Echo, since it changed hands some time ago, has lost its savour: it is now only a practical and vulgar little Radical. The Evening News and Telephone came out a short time since as a Radical evening paper. It was simply beneath notice. Latterly it has burst forth under new auspices as the protector of the Constitution and the enemy of Atheism, and in type and matter it is very much improved, but still a poor affair: it is edited by an old 'sub' of the Standard, and is now owned or supported by two or three gentlemen, among whom is Viscount Follkestone, who think by spending their money on a 'penny evening' they can stem the tide of democracy. At the West End the other night I asked for the Evening News, but the newspaper man, in an insulting tone, said 'No, we don't keep them sort up here'. Finally, to any person of some pretensions to intellectuality and who is neither a jingo nor as we now say a 'jumbo'—a sentimental politician—the only thoroughly readable paper is the Pall Mall Gazette.

Talking of 'Jumbo', he is going. you may make up your minds to that. His cart—the new one, low in the wheels—his manacles and chains and ropes and other vile instruments of transportation, are expected to arrive at the 'Zoo' to-night. Thousands and thousands of people have been to the gardens to bid him farewell. At an early hour in the morning the bun-shop is sold out. He has consumed as many as 800 buns before breakfast, besides articles of ladies wearing apparel during the past week. Barnum has again wired to the Daily Telegraph, which characteristically fills its columns with idiotic letters teeming with 'jumboism', that he cannot forego his six tons of flesh, but on reconsideration he will return Jumbo next December, if the Zoological Society desires. He says, that Jumbo has been so extensively advertised in New York that the loss and disappointment would be irreparable should he fail to arrive. Major General Benson, who has had much experience in shipping Elephants for war purposes in Burmah and other places, recommends the simple plan of slinging Jumbo on board like a horse. Once off his legs, the elephant offers no resistance. That plan no doubt had already occurred to the managers of the Zoo. At all events, they keep discreetly silent as to their operations, but continue them and hope to get Jumbo off their hands and the public mind to-morrow.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The mail bags for the Royal Mail steamer Neva close at 1 o'clock p.m. She sails in the evening, taking the largest and most fashionable list of passengers since the memorable one of the ill-fated Boyne when she was nearly lost (at least the passengers thought so, though the captain did not) off Rio, and a millionaire British broker led off the prayers for the dying with a calmness and fervour worthy of the Archbishop of Canterbury. We hope the Neva's passengers will meet with no such trying ordeal, and if they do, that there is some pious broker, banker, or barraquero amongst them who will prove equal to the emergency. We are requested to state that the steamer Stella, with Don Manuel Aguirre, Mr. Wilson and their friends, will leave the passenger mole at 1 o'clock for the Neva.

The concert at the Coliseum tonight by the German Singing Academy is the great musical event of Holy Week, and we strongly recommend an early arrival at the doors, as it is not often people get a chance of hearing Mozart's immortal Requiem, and there is certain to be a crush in the old 'salle.' A musical friend who has heard the rehearsals assures us that it is the grandest thing in the musical line that has ever been got up here. We believe him. Whatever Germans do they do well.

Our Scotch readers will find matter to much interest them in our Supplement to-day.

The Royal Mail steamer Derwent has arrived, but her news is only to March 1st from London, and we have already published news of 5th. We feel pleasure in welcoming Mr and Mrs H. Dillon, Mrs Gerald Dillon and all other friends who have arrived by this steamer.

No wonder the Patria Argentina gets in front in the race for telegraphic news. It has now a correspondent in Limbo—no other than Dante himself, whose sojourn there has not dried up his patriotism, as his first telegraphic despatch says that Perrod is a brick and did the right thing in the Volpi affair. The immortal poet also mentions, incidentally, that he found Beatrice in the Shades, married her, and has so many children he can hardly count them. We are indebted to the Diario for all this news, and, while congratulating the Patriot on its new correspondent, advise it to draw the line of its enterprise at Dante's present abode, as it, or rather its correspondent, will undoubtedly fare worse if he go farther.

There seems to be a general effort in some quarters to keep the Volpi business red hot, and the latest news is as lively as ever. Most people are getting a trifle tired of the affair and would like to see it left to the Italian Minister to settle quietly. It is a fine thing for the telegraph companies, as the despatches to and from the Eternal City are most voluminous.

We hear that the Pedagogues' Conference will commence in the concert hall of the Exhibition on Saturday. As for the Poets, they seem to have perished in the attempt to do themselves justice.

The receipts at the Exhibition on Saturday last were $133,000 m/c, a splendid day's work. The Show is paying far better than even its most sanguine supporters expected. The Committee should keep the steam up by providing special attractions without raising the entrance price over $10 m/c. Judiciously worked, there is quite a lot of money in the Exhibition, irrespective of its own manifold attractions.

The Society for the Protection of Animals is likely to make its debut at last, as the Minister of the Interior has approved its statutes. We hope this gives it a legal 'locus standi', and that it will elect either to set to work at once or dissolve. As it is, it is being made a laughing stock of, most unjustly in our opinion.

Our distinguished countryman Professor Fitzmons, Rector of the National College at Corrientes, has arrived to represent that province in the Pedagogues' Conference. We feel much pleasure in saluting him.

Standard luck is good (although we left the old 'Court' in Calle San Martin without finding the 70,000 ounces that are buried in the back patio) but the luck attending our colleague El Imparcial of Madrid appears to be a trifle better. A clerk in the office of that paper bought a Lottery ticket for the drawing on Jan. 30th as a present for his wife, and it won 20,000 reales. On the 11th Feb. he bought another ticket and won 8,000 reales, and on the 24th Feb. capped his unexampled luck by winning the big prize (16,000 pats) with a single whole ticket. Fortune has some bad luck in store for whoever she caresses in this effusive way.

The policemen in the Exhibition are doing their best to perpetuate the bad impression caused by the Simmonet-Daumas affair. On Sunday night a reporter of the Nacion was within an ace of being 'hauled' for touching a wooden vase with the tip of his finger. This is simply insufferable.

We are most happy to announce that young Lt. Gomez of the Brazilian Navy, who was wounded in a duel last week, is completely out of danger and it is only a question of time for him to become 'himself again.'

Poor B. O! The Fates are against her. A case of whipping women has occurred at San Jose, in the very thick of the Volpi excitement, which, one would think, might induce brutal officials to keep their savage propensities under control, at least till the affair blows over. It appears that the superior police authorities of the town ordered two women (negroes) to be whipped for constant drunkenness, and one of the policemen who executed the sentence told the story openly in the principal hotel. We greatly fear that our Rosario correspondent is right, and that there is nothing for it but to 'wipe out' B. Oriental.

Amongst the distinguished foreigners now in this city is Count Salvador de Mallosinho, one of the wealthiest men in Brazil, his fortune being estimated at £4,000,000 stg. all made in trade.

The German Section of the Exhibition will be opened next week, and a good thing may be expected.

The thieving fraternity are making more money than any other class out of the Exhibition, and their audacity is increasing in proportion. The other night, at the Colon Theatre, Commissary Suffern was all but relieved of his gold 'ticker.' What an heirloom for a thief's family! A policeman's watch, stolen by a grandfather from the very pocket of the law's guardian! A fellow named Giveli, long known to the police, has grown so rich on pocket-picking that he has retired from business and gone on a tour to Europe. Another goes about dressed to the nines, with a $30,000 m/c diamond ring on his finger.

We are sorry to hear that the indefatigable Provincial Chief of Police, Sr Dantas, is unwell and obliged to take a short rest in the camp. Meanwhile, Sr Lartigau, Chief officer, takes command of the camp police.

The Minister of Education has caused a wail of woe in the National Colleges by suppressing the fortnight's vacation after the written examinations. Well done doctor! There is far too much vacation in all the public and private schools of the country, the most pernicious feature of all being the Saturday half holiday and the permission to boarders to pass the Sundays at home.

There is always some novedad, or other at Baltar & Quesada's from potrillos to pigs, pictures and 'pot-pourri'. They are about to to start a rival to the Exhibition now—some treasures sent out by the Society of Artists in Paris, for the Show in Plaza Once, but which are about to be sold, by advice of Mr John Cross Varela, the Society's agent here. We hear that the collection is a superb one and really worth money.

ON 'CHANGE.

April 4th

Patacons	25.—
Cedulas A	100½
Do E	84½
National Bank Shares	117½

The market is very quiet in view of the advent of several holidays, and many leading brokers and merchants have deserted the hall to visit the Uruguay and the camp. The ring was very dull all day long, and little business was transacted. Some small amounts of gold were sold for end of the month and end of May at 25.05; but these sales do not amount to much, and we think larger operations are transacted privately. Many were the comments on the revolution in Corrientes, which no doubt amounts to some barrack or police squabble in the streets of the city.

In Cedulas the Series A maintains its firm tendency, but there are few probabilities of prices rising any higher unless money becomes very cheap in the market. The speculation in Series E is insignificant, and the rates of the scrip are weak. Many parties who operated heavily last month have withdrawn from the market.

National Bank Shares were firmer than anticipated, and the opinion is gaining ground that the Italians will soon bull the market, as a more profitable operation than last month's bearing. Very little is done in the stock, and the tone of the market is one of expectancy. No important operations need be anticipated before the middle of the month. Rates for the end of the month have become firmer and the market is hard at 118¾.

Several parties in the market are offering to buy the Rio Negro National Land Shares, but apparently few or none are to be had at present. Land seems to be looking upwards again, in view of the late heavy purchases.

The Villarino leaves to-morrow at 9 a.m. crowded with passengers and with full cargo for the South and Patagones. The Commissary of the Army leaves with money to pay the troops. General Villegas does not go down this time.

The works at the National Government House are progressing quickly; the new front will be on the Plaza 25 de Mayo, and the improvements promise a splendid façade. The crowds at the Government House every day shew the immense business doing.

Gold—
For April 30th 10,000 25.05
For May 31st 10,000 25.05
Sales, 20,000.

Cedulas—
For cash A 21,000 at 100¼–½
For cash E 1,000 at 84½
For April 30th E 50,000 84½–½
Sales, 72,000.

Nat. Bank Shares—
For cash 210 share at 112½–¾–¾
For April 30th 1,300 shares 113–112½–113 to 113¾

Sales, 1,510.

Debtors to the Mortgage Bank are reminded that they must make their quarterly payments on Series A, B and E between the 8th and 15th instant. A heavy fine will be otherwise exacted, if not paid in time.

We are in receipt of late papers from Rio; we see in the Jornal do Comercio a splendid correspondence from this city on the Continental Exhibition. Ample justice is therein tributed to the B. Aires Club Industrial.

The Committee of Sheepfarmers and Estancieros for the Continental Exhibition met yesterday to make arrangements as to the Show of sheep and cattle; this Rural Show will begin on the 15th April in the gardens of the Exhibition.

This was a farewell day on Change. The whole R. Plate looks on the move, and the Bolsa was crowded with people leave-taking.

Mr Gibson took leave of his very many friends to-day. He sails in the Neva; our best wishes accompany him.

Exchange on London 49½–¾.

Discounts in the market say at 6½–7 o/o for gold and 7–7½ o/o for paper.

A Danish barque, the Hellespont, drawing 17 feet 9 inches, entered the Boca on Sunday; she went right up to Balcarce's barraca to discharge. This is the second time that a vessel of over 17 feet draught has entered the Riachuelo. The tide was unusually high on Sunday and there must have been 20 feet of water in the channel.

The great business of the day was the dispatching of the R.M.S. Neva; the agency was crowded with people all day long; she takes 70 first class passengers and 150 third class; amongst the names we see:—

Mr Gibson and family
Mr F G Wilding
Mr Waldorp
Mr Oyler
Mr C P Lumb and two Misses Lumb

At afternoons nothing done either in Nat. Bank Shares or Cedulas. The market was at a complete stand-still and not a single operation was done. The shares close firm at 113¾.

The news that the Federal arbitrators are about to reconsider their award has created no end of excitement amongst proprietors of lands near Lincoln and Lavalle. Some of them would rather be in Cordoba than in Buenos Aires.

THE SCOTCH CHURCH.

It gives us much pleasure to extract the following from the March issue of our diminutive, but most useful contemporary the Scotch Church Magazine :—

We have received the following Report of a Meeting of the Special Committee appointed at last General Meeting. The accompanying letters were drawn up by two members of the Committee, the first of which was adopted. This letter will be engraved and formally presented to the Rev. James Smith in due course.

B. Ayres, Feb. 1st, 1882.

To the Rev. James Smith, M.A.
Incumbent of St. Andrew's Scotch Church, Buenos Ayres.

Rev. and Dear Sir.

Having been named at a General Meeting of the Congregation of St. Andrew's Scotch Church, as a Committee to reply to the letter addressed by you to the Trustees, under date of 7th ult, we now do so, conveying to you the resolution of the Congregation as expressed formally on that occasion, and at the same time thanking you for the disinterested and Christian spirit shown by you in the renunciation you there make of your incumbency and its emoluments.

Resolved: "That in accepting the resignation of the Rev. Mr Smith, in accordance with tenor of his letter of 7th January, a special committee be appointed consisting of Messrs Thomas Drysdale, W. Wilson, R. Inglis Runciman and Dr Alston, in conjunction with the Trustees of the Church, to convey to Mr Smith, in an appropriate address, the feelings of the Congregation."

Intimately bound up, as you have been, with us for upwards of thirty years, the determination that you have arrived at, to separate yourself from St. Andrew's Scotch Church, we know must only have been come to after the most earnest and prayerful meditation, and, knowing such to be the case, and that only the most powerful motives could have urged you to separate yourself from us, has weighed with the Congregation in accepting your resignation; but, Sir, we cannot do so, we cannot allow such a momentous step in your life, and such a tearing asunder of old associations on our's to come about, without an expression, on the part of the Congregation you have so long been connected with, of its deep sorrow and regret.

Your name is a household word not only in the homes of the various members of this Congregation and in those of Scotchmen scattered over the boundless plains of this province, and the hills and dales of the Banda Oriental, but it is a name looked up to and revered amid all classes of society in this large and cosmopolitan city; for, wherever sickness or sorrow entered, there, regardless of creed or nationality, were you ever found to minister to the spiritual and oftimes the temporal wants of the poor, the sick and the fallen.

But the Scotch Community in the River Plate have a still larger debt they owe you and can never repay—Not content with the earnest care of your own flock in this city, you were not long in our midst until your active and energetic nature and large-hearted benevolence saw and took pity on the almost total deprivation of the means for supplying the spiritual wants of our countrymen in the remote districts, and you never rested or slackened in your efforts in their behalf till you saw churches arise and pastors provided for those scattered flocks. Nor was this all, for we all know that personally you have exposed yourself to the torrid heat of our summers and to the inconveniences arising from the want of all regular communication, in ministering at all times and seasons to the spiritual wants of our countrymen in carrying out your missionary labours.

The moral effect of such a life, and of your labours in the cause of Christ on all classes of the community, who can calculate? But may He who seeth and knoweth all things lay up for you an eternal crown of glory.

We need not tell you, Sir, of the loss you will be to this Congregation of St. Andrew's, which you have so long, so conscientiously and faithfully presided over. For, in a ministry of upwards of thirty years, you have well acquired the title of Father of your Flock. Alas! how few now remain of the original congregation you came amidst. To day the Congregation may be said to look on you in very deed as a Father, for have you not been such to them? Receiving them into your fold at the Baptismal font, preparing them for the sacred rites of the Communion Table, welcoming them as members of Christ's people; they are indeed your very own, and they look up to you with the love and affection of children to a revered and honored parent. The few in our midst who welcomed you to these shores, and who still go in and out amongst us, have ever found in you a true and faithful Pastor and friend; for all times of sickness or bereavement have you comforted and sustained them—in loss of fortune, led them to think of other and greater riches than those of Mammon, teaching us that a Gracious God often chastens for our eternal good.

Let us now, Sir, in accepting your resignation of the Ministry of this Congregation, assure you that the announcement you make therein of, under God's will, returning to end your days in our midst, after your intended trip to your mother country is the one bright spot we all look forward to, that while the Gracious Father, whose Minister you are, spares you, you will go out and in among us, even as of old and now, doing good by precept and example, and, also, apart from all your sacred labors, fulfilling the happy mission of friendship and love. That He, who rules all things for our good, may long spare you to your family and friends and take you under His Divine care and keeping is the heartfelt wish of your very obdt. servants and sincere friends.

Thomas Drysdale, W. Wilson, R Inglis Runciman, John Alston. Robert McClymont David Methven, William Anderson, James Dodds, H. W. Lochore.

Bs. Aires, Feb. 7th, 1882.

The Rev. James Smith, M.A
Incumbent of Saint Andrew's Church,
Buenos Aires.

Rev. and Dear Sir.

At a General Meeting of the Congregation of St. Andrew's Scotch Church, held in the Church on the evening of ——, we were named as a Committee to acknowledge receipt of and reply to your letters of 7th January to the Trustees, and to inform you of the unanimous adoption of the following resolution:

(Here follows the resolution)

We desire to express to you our appreciation of the disinterested and Christian feeling which has animated you in resigning your incumbency and its emoluments. We are persuaded that, connected with us as you have been for upwards of thirty years, your determination to sever the bond that has united us so closely and so sacredly, can have been come to only after mature consideration, and believing this, and that only very weighty reasons can have influenced you, we can but respect your decision and with deep sorrow accept your resignation.

We cannot allow you to break the link that has bound us, without conveying to you an expression of the high and affectionate esteem in which your name has long been held amongst us, and of our gratitude for your disinterested and loving exertions on our behalf.

You have earnestly urged on us the claims of revealed religion and divine morality, and by your example you have shown us what is noble in fidelity to duty, and what is heroic in self-sacrificing devotion to the good of mankind.

On your arrival in Buenos Ayres, finding that the spiritual wants of the large Scotch population of the surrounding country were entirely unattended to, you, undaunted by distance or difficulties, undertook to supply these wants, and after years of patient toil, succeeded in establishing chapels in the most populous districts.

Few young Scotchmen have arrived on our shores who have not been impressed with your deep interest in them, and with your earnest solicitude for their welfare.

When in 1871 the plague of yellow fever visited Buenos Ayres, and well nigh decimated our numbers; when all who could left the city, you remained faithfully at your post and were unremitting in your attention to the poor, the destitute and the dying.

Not only have you been the centre of love and interest in your own circle; you have been known and honoured in a circle yet larger. Men of other creeds have been attracted by your honest simplicity and singleness of purpose, they have admired your liberality and toleration and have honoured you as a teacher of 'a universal redemption and a Catholic religion.'

Poverty and distress have ever been passports to your sympathy and have served to incite you to acts of benevolence.

By your Congregation you will always be remembered with deep affection, and long after we have passed away and our names and our memorials have been forgotten, your name will live associated with a true and a brave life, with a loving and a sympathetic heart, with kindly words and with noble deeds.

It cheers us to know that though the connection which has existed between us must cease, you intend to spend your declining years amongst us; we trust that these years may prove happy ones to you, and we sincerely hope and earnestly pray that all good may attend you until in His own time the Great Father shall see fit to summon you home—to that home where the weary are at rest—there to hear addressed to you, in divine accents: Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

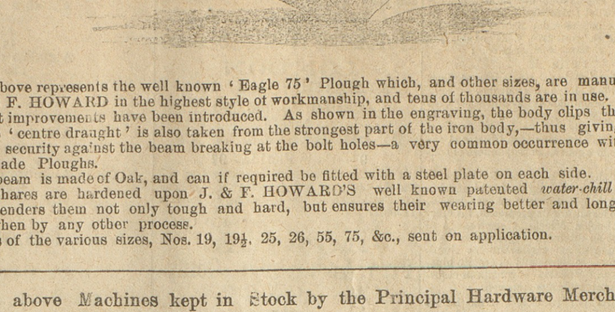
HOWARD'S CELEBRATED PLOUGHS



The above represents the well known 'Eagle 75' Plough which, and other sizes, are manufactured by J. & F. HOWARD in the highest style of workmanship, and tens of thousands are in use. Several manifest improvements have been introduced. As shown in the engraving, the body clips the beam, and the 'centre draught' is also taken from the strongest part of the iron body,—thus giving an additional security against the beam breaking at the bolt holes—a very common occurrence with American made Ploughs.

The beam is made of Oak, and can if required be fitted with a steel plate on each side.

The shares are hardened upon J. & F. HOWARD'S well known patented water-chill process, which renders them not only tough and hard, but ensures their wearing better and longer than made when by any other process.

Prices of the various sizes, Nos. 19, 19½, 25, 26, 55, 75, &c., sent on application.

The above Machines kept in Stock by the Principal Hardware Merchants.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

ROUGHING IT IN THE COLONIES.—There can be no doubt that a man has to put up with many little inconveniences when he settles in a new country; some of them arising from 'the necessity of things,' whilst others are the result of his own want of knowledge or foresight. However, if he can secure pure water and good bread he will manage to get along tolerably well. Thanks to the advance of chemical science, this last desideratum is not so difficult to obtain as in times past, for with a good supply of BORWICK'S BAKING POWDER, even Robinson Crusoe himself might have produced the whitest and most palatable of bread, to say nothing of cakes and pastry ad libitum, and would doubtless have ended by opening a pastry-cook's shop upon his desert island. NOTA BENE.—Don't forget to ask your storekeeper to put up a good supply of this valuable article with your groceries. In packets, 1d, and 2d, ; boxes, 6d. and 1s. each. (4)
